liveries of mail that day, but will make a collection at morning and noon as usual.
B. F. BONHAM, P. M.

NO SERVICE.—There will be no service Thursday morning in the Evangelical church, Seventeenth and Chemeketa streets, as the congregation will worship at the Union service in the Baptist church. In connection with the regular Thursday evening service tomorrow night, a social gathering will be held to which all the members and friends of the church are invited.

FAIR WEATHER.—The prospects of rain for Thanksgiving are good. The government forecast for Thursday are fair and continued cold.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. C. E. Wolverson is visiting in Albany.

Dr. M. S. Skiff went to Gervais this morning.

Senator A. Gesner was in Portland on Tuesday.

George W. Dabbs has returned from the Lincoln county quarries.

A. W. Giesy left this morning on a business visit to Lebanon and Brownsville.

Judge John Burnett returned to Corvallis, via the 11 o'clock train, today.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Driver returned Tuesday afternoon from a brief visit at Eugene.

State School Superintendent G. M.
Irwin returned Tuesday afternoon from points up the valley.

Attorney Webster Holmes and his daughter returned this morning from a business visit in Portland.

Mrs. A. B. Gardner went to Brownsville this morning where will visit her mother for three or four weeks.

Mayor Claude Gatch, accompanied by his little son, Tom, left this morning for Seattle on a short visit to his parents.

State Senator A. J. Johnson, of Scio, Linn county, was in the city today, having come up from Portland last evening.

Wm. Kirk will spend his Thanksgiving vacation at his home in Halsey. Mr. Kirk is attending Willamette University.

Louie Rauch, a student at Willamette University, went to his home at Silverton this morning to spend the day.
Deputy County Clerk F. A. Turner, Attorney S. T. Richardson and R. J.
Fleming went down the river this morning on a duck hunt. It is not necessary to add that they will return well supplied with web-footed birds.

AT MARION'S CAPITOL.

MARRIAGE LICENSES were issued by County Clerk L. V. Ehlen Tuesday afternoon as follows: Thomas Gibson and Mary F. Warner; Fred G. Keene and Mabel O. Nelson. Since the groom-elect in the latter instance is but 20 years of age, the consent of his father was necessary before the license could be issued.

PROBATE.

E. J. Thurman, C. T. DeGreene and J. G. Smith, appraisers of the estate of Frederick Koons, deceased, have filed their inventory of the estate with the county clerk. It shows the property of the state to be valued at $889.50.

Ella Minto, guardian of the estate of W. J. Minto, has been granted an allowance of $8 per month out of the personal property in her care and custody.

IMPROVEMENT.—An addition is being built on the Western end of the building, used for dissecting purposes by the medical department of Willamette university. The building is located on the southeastern corner of the campus, and more room is needed for the work, to accommodate the increased number of students, in this flourishing department of the pioneer school.

FOR THANKSGIVING.—The arrival direct from the growers of choice green fruits is noting. Cranberries, grapes, lemons, oranges, and all kinds of dried fruits at John G. Wright's Pioneer grocery store. 2t of society comedies—"Senorita," will be presented at Reed's, who controls real enjoyment are promised to settle turkey dinners upon. Admission, 50 and 25 cents.

THE CAST.

Nicholas Vanaistyne, (the Old "Nick" of Wall Street), who controls "Senorita"—Chas. H. Burgraf.

Bertie Vanaistyne, (a Wall Street Lamb), who hates "Senorita"—Dell A. Dinsmore.

Nicholas Vanaistyne, Jr., (a Wall Street Bear), who wants "Senorita"— J. B. Geisy.

The Rev. Dr. Murray Hilton, (whose flock is composed of Wall Street Lambs), interested in "Senorita"— Richard Ryley.

Dr. Parke Wainwright, (a Typical Gentleman), who will not have anything to do with "Senorita"—Albert Hopf.

Musgrave, (a Trust Secretary), also interested in "Senorita"—Albert Stel-ner.

Lord Arthur Fitzroyal Walder-grave, (a Wall Street Stock Broker), would bet on "Senorita"—A. T. Steiner.

Watson Flint, (a Wall Street Stock Broker), thinks more of his commissions than "Senorita"—A. T. Steiner.

Mrs. Correlia Opdyke, (a Rich Widow, whose fortunes causes the "Parson" much anxiety), puzzled about "Senorita"—Miss Ethel Hughes.

Rose Vanaistyne, (Wife of Nicholas, Jr.), cares nothing for "Senorita"— Miss Esther Collins.

Agnes, (in love with "Bertie the Lamb"), much worried on account of "Senorita"—Miss Mollie Bernardi.

Lady Mary Trelawney, (Wife of the other Lamb), who makes Lord Arthur wish he had never heard of "Senorita"— Miss Nana Paddock.

ACT I.—Private office in the Vanaistyne mansion, Fifth Avenue, New York City.—The Giant and the Lamb.

ACT II.—Drawing room Vanaistyne mansion. "I do believe that our dear pastor has been betting on a horse race—a mysterious package of letters."

ACT III.—Office of Watson Flint & Co., stock exchange brokers, Wall Street. Bulls, Bears, Lambs and Tigers. "Senorita is safe."

ACT IV.—Interval of 18 months—drawing room same as act III. The parson proposes. The young Napoleon of Wall Street.

THE WIZARD OIL CO.

will open up a week's engagement at Reed's opera house, commencing next Monday night. The West Side Independent says: "To say that their entertainment is good, don't half exaggerate. Their comic and sentimental songs are rendered in an up-to-date style and always receive a hearty round of applause. The company is composed of genial well bred young men, and they are receiving good patronage from our people." Prices in all parts of the house, 15 cents.

OREGONIANS Who Had Business With the State.

Thanksgiving day will be generally observed at the State House and all offices will be closed.
Sheriff James W. Hare, of Astoria, brought Philip Johnson, a native of Searsport, Me., age 76, a sea captain and pilot on the Columbia since 1848, to the asylum today. He was assisted by Ed.
Hanson as guard.

Sheriff J. F. Pihy, of Union, brought Nancy Cox to the asylum. She is 44 years old and has been several times committed to the asylum. Her attacks last about a week and are caused overwork and religious excitement.

The following corporations filed attificates with the secretary of state today:

The Portland Masonic Cemetery Company by Robert C. Wright, Andrew J. Marshall and A. McCollman.
Capital stock, $15,000.

The Valley Dairy Company of Portland, by W. C. McElroy, A. Neppach and W. E. Stevens. Capital stock $1,000.

The well that is being dug by order of Secretary of State Kincaid will strike a fine vein of mineral water at a depth of about 400 feet. This vein was tapped by the Salem Brewery and yields about 750 gallons an hour of soft mineral water, of absolute purity and found to be very health-giving to all who drink thereof.

DIED.
MOBLEY.—At the family home in Morningside, at 630 p. m. Tuesday, November 24th, Mrs. R. Mobley, the 8 year old son of Mrs. R. Mobley, of Typhoid fever.

The remains will probably be shipped Thursday for Hartsdale, N. Y., where they will be given interment.
The parents, brothers and sisters of Mr. Mobley, father of the deceased, reside at that point.

THE POPULAR DAILY.

THE ONE CENT DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL is growing rapidly in favor and large clubs are being raised in many of the towns of this state.

It is distinctively the people's paper. Men of all parties read THE CAPITAL JOURNAL. It is widely known among the people and has the reputation, whether deserved or not, of never having sold out the interests of the people.

Over the legislature and for the coming year THE DAILY and WEEKLY will prove of great interest to all who love good and economical government.

SCRAPS.

Harvey S. Jordan of Salem is in the field for chief clerk of the House.

Ex rep. S. T. Moorhead of Junction wants to be chief clerk of the senate.

Ex-County Superintendent Graham is to be alderman from the Fourth ward.

Did Hon. J. J. Murphy bid for the mayorality of Salem, in his speech Tuesday evening?

J. J. Daly, a member of the House in 1895, is a candidate for chief clerk of the next House.

McKinley balls have been held at a number of towns besides Salem, to which only the McKinley workers were invited.

The Oregonian gets off the usual stereotyped phrases against any lady committee clerks being employed in the legislature.

An old resident and property owner suggests the name of R. B. Duncan for Mayor of Salem. Like a barb wire fence he has many strong points.

Cowls, president of the McMinnville National bank, died Tuesday of blood poison caused by a slight scratch with a piece of wire on the right hand a few days ago.

Oregonian: "The talk that is biennially heard of the state buying the Patton residence for a governor's mansion is again indulged in around Salem." The property referred to is the Cooke mansion, owned by Mrs.
Cook, widow of the former State Treasurer.

That petition from St. Paul, to have stock restrained is an important matter. The farmers find their fences washed away, and are unable to get onto the soft lands with new fencing material. Stock running at large will ruin all prospective crops. Some legislation is necessary.

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr.
King's New Discovery has no equal as a Cough remedy. J. D. Brown Prop of St.
James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind testifies that he was cured of a Cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommend it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor because it always cures. Mr. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has or fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves.

FOOT BALL.

Willamette University to Play Pacific College at Newberg Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon at Newberg will be played a match between the Willamette University and the Pacific College teams. The game promises to be quite interesting and the prospects are quite favorable for a very pleasant day. The Salem team will leave on the steamer Altona at 7:45 a. m. Thursday morning and will return on the Ramona after the game. A great many students from the University will accompany the team and will add materially to the enthusiasm of the game.

The probable line-up of the two teams is as follows:
